Developing Talent in Others

Workshop & Feedback 360

Help others:
Achieve Results
Reverse Low Performance
Accept Greater Responsibility

Increase Your Impact become someone's Coach of the Year

Knowing when and how to shift gears from Hand's On... to a Hand In... to a Hand Off ... is critical to developing others. Each require a distinct Style and Focus, yet most coaches get stuck in one gear.

Mismatches are frustrating and costly. Adapting well creates rapport and develops those you coach.

You'll learn what it is great coaches are doing when they are at their best, and how to apply a simple framework to help you 'Read and Respond' effectively to any situation you face.
